

SECP establishes Sharia-compliant brokerage segment(NEWS)

The Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan (SECP) has established a dedicated Sharia-compliant brokerage segment in the capital market with 33 brokerage houses now operating dedicated Islamic windows, collectively accounting for around 52 per cent of total traded volume at the Pakistan Stock Exchange (PSX). Two additional dedicated brokers are offering a complete range of Islamic brokerage services, according to a statement on Wednesday. Under the framework, Islamic brokerage operations will maintain clear segregation of client funds and defined Sharia governance requirements.....read more

Economists see little chance of US granting USD10bn ESF request(BR)

A challenging proposition with little prospects of success, amid high global oil prices and mounting economic and geopolitical pressures on Washington. This was the consensus of independent economists on Finance Minister Muhammad Aurangzeb's formal request for a USD 10 billion Exchange Stabilization Facility (ESF) from Scott Bessent, the Treasury Secretary of the United States during his recent visit to Washington. Senior government officials when requested by this correspondent to comment remained tight lipped thereby leaving key questions unanswered about its structure, conditionalities, financing mechanism and the likelihood of approval.....read more

FO indicates 60-day extension in ceasefire(BR)

Foreign Office (FO) Spokesperson Tahir Andrabi indicated on Wednesday that a 60-day extension in the ceasefire between Iran and the United States was under consideration, expressing hope that the ceasefire can be extended if there was a genuine willingness to engage in dialogue.“Even now, a few days remain, so we are not closing the chapter. We hope that even if the deadline is not met, an extension will eventually take place and the parties will return to dialogue,” said the spokesperson as the US-Iran ceasefire is set to expire on August 17.Speaking at his weekly media briefing, he said that a framework for follow-up dialogue already existed in the Islamabad MoU and the Pakistan-Qatar Joint Statement.....read more

Trump says US will ‘keep’ Hormuz control(BR)

President Donald Trump on Wednesday said the United States is in control of the strategic Strait of Hormuz and will “keep it.” “The U.S.A. has total control over the Strait of Hormuz. I THINK WE WILL KEEP IT!” Trump wrote on his Truth Social platform. “Our Naval Blockade is being called, by everyone, ‘A WALL OF STEEL,’ and there is nothing Iran can do about it.” Trump has repeatedly claimed the United States controls the strait, which is vital for the flow of energy and other commodity shipping through the Middle East. However, Iran says it effectively controls much of the waterway and intends to impose a toll system in response to the US war launched by Trump on February 28.....read more
